PWRDF

For 20 years, PWRDF has worked with Indigenous communities in Canada as development partners.

PWRDF is committed to nurturing and building relationships with indigenous communities, supporting the preservation of language and culture, and defending the right of indigenous peoples to self-determination. PWRDF works with international indigenous communities in both Canada and the developing world, supporting community advocacy and helping indigenous communities maintain and nurture traditional knowledge and practices.

In Canada, PWRDF assists through the support of traditional education and cultural activities, the establishment of potable water systems, and nurturing a dialogue around holistic health.
